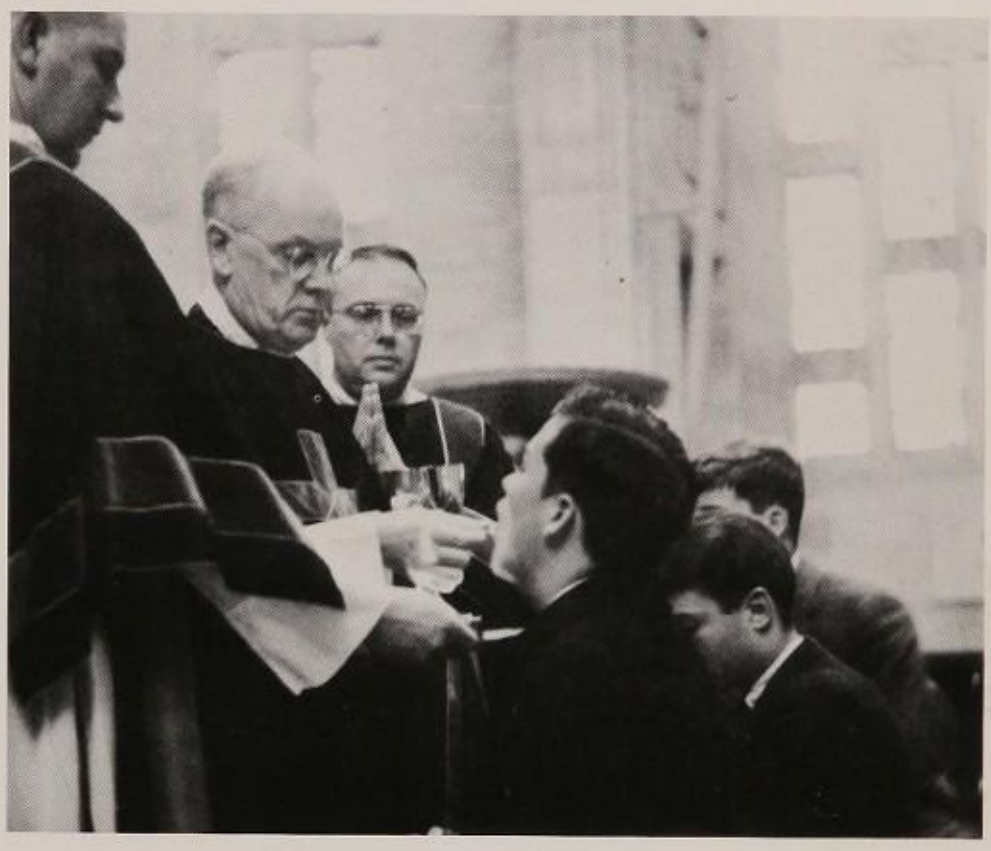
A boy's years at Loyola are ones of growth. He develops into the man that he is to be.



This growth is not merely physical, but intellectual, social, spiritual. It takes place in the classroom, in the library, on campus walks, on athletic fields, in the chapel.

To direct and assist that growth — that is Loyola's task.

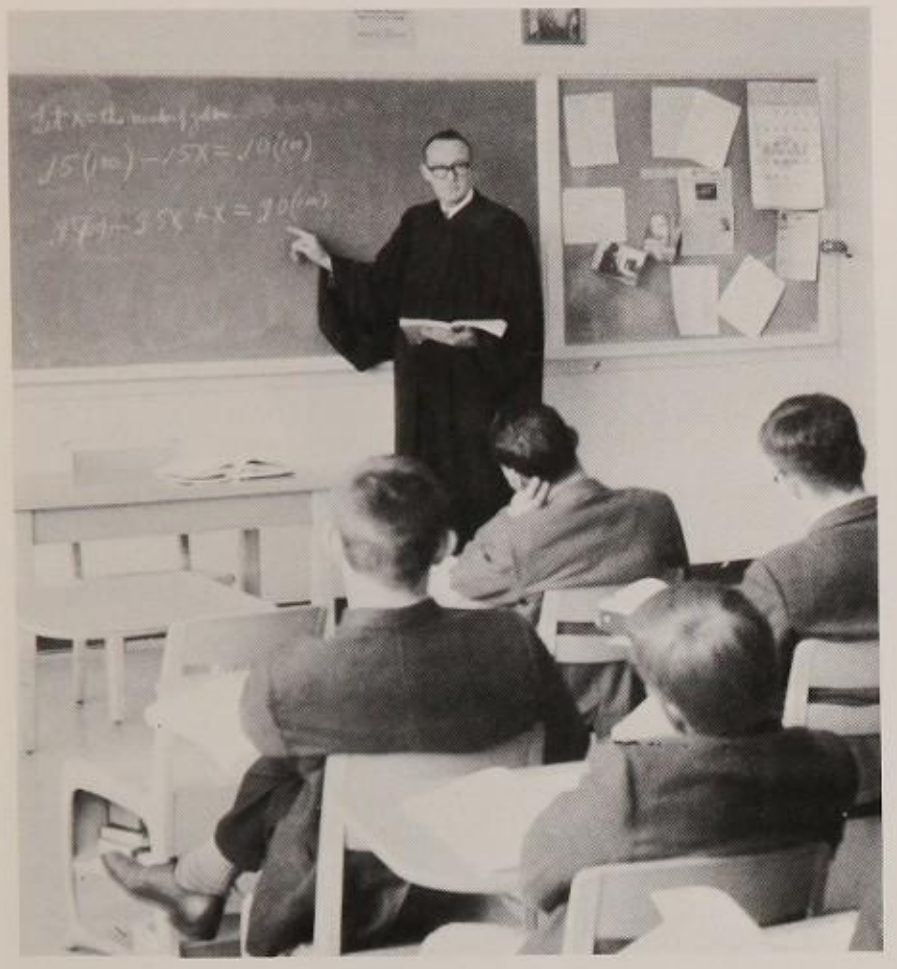
Dedication



We, the class of 1965, dedicate this yearbook to a man who has contributed twenty-three years of devoted service to Loyola High School. He has helped to mold the minds and bodies of hundreds of Loyola men, as teacher, coach, and athletic director. Yet he does not serve the school in these capacities alone. For he is a man of loyalty, conviction and integrity to whom all of us at Loyola can look for example. Therefore, with pride and gratitude, we dedicate this yearbook to Edward J. Hargaden.

Generosity demands preparation, and Loyola's teachers have prepared themselves for their work, for only when a man has grasped something for himself can he pass it on to others.

Self-sacrifice is a part of this generosity, sacrifice of a man's time and energies. Another part is a concern for the total development of the boys' personalities, intellectually, physically, spiritually.

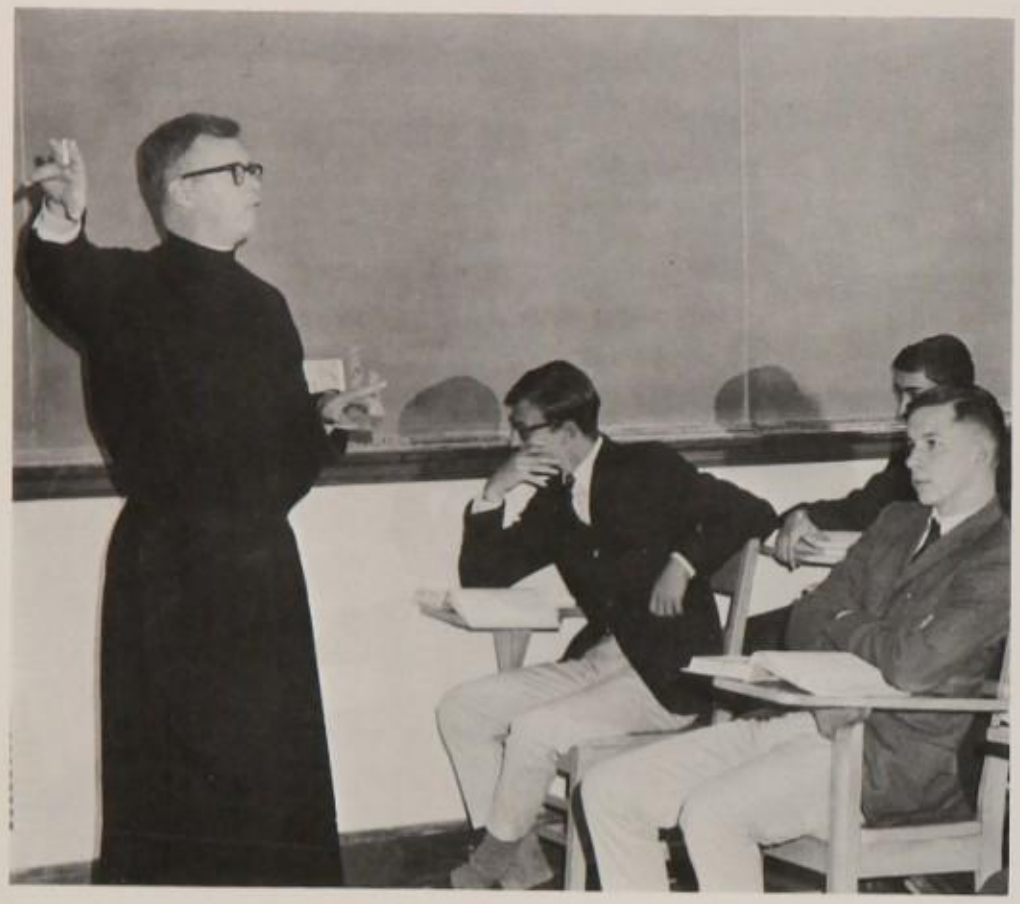
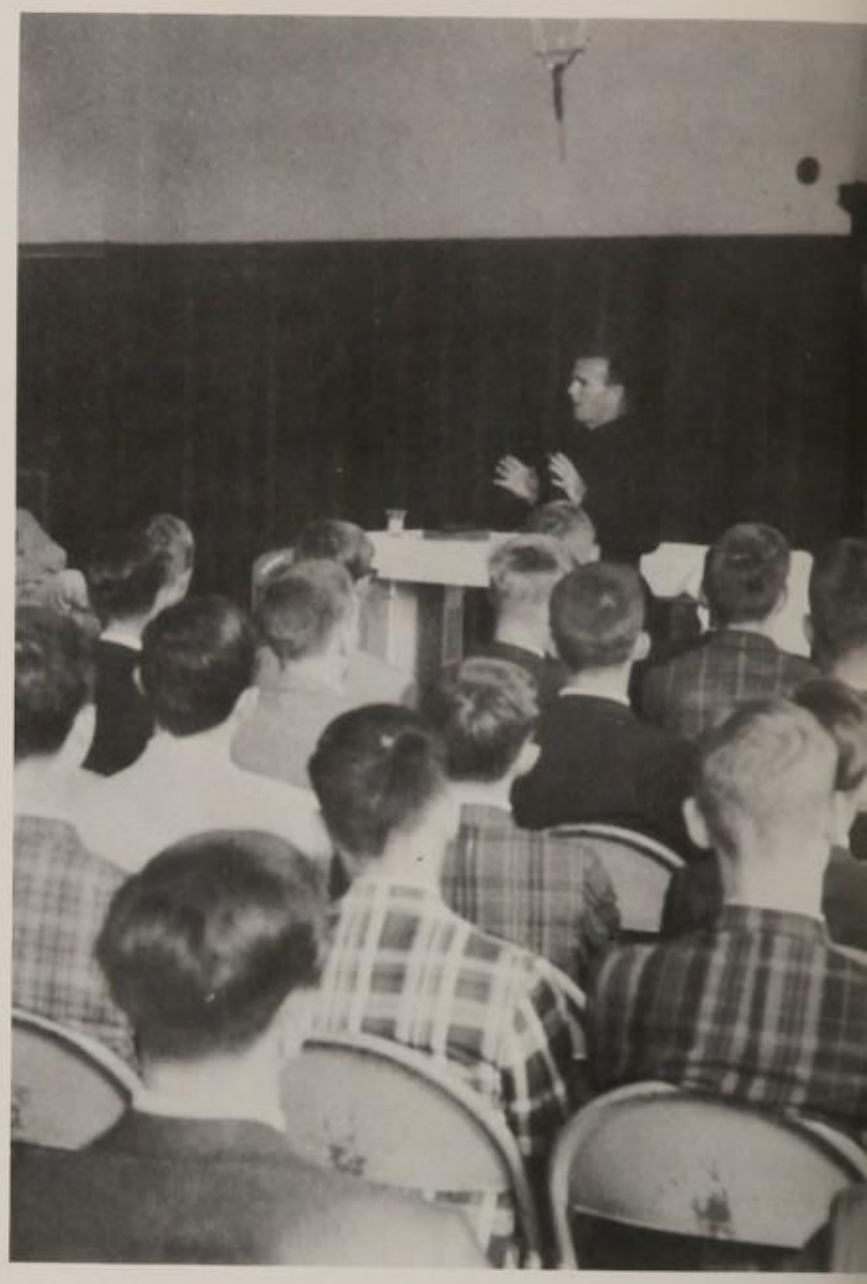
Classes

First period finds Fr. Burns analyzing the structure of chemical compounds in the Chemistry lecture room.





School begins and, under Fr. Hawley's supervision, the Junior Class works its way through a busy two-day retreat schedule.

CHEMISTRY 3A—1st row: Graham, Malloy, Cywinski, Buehler (Treas.), Diggs (Pres.), Fr. Burns, Urban (Sec.), J. Kennedy (V. Pres.); 2nd row: J. Ryan, Counselman, Dewberry, Quinn, Sullivan, Long. McDonald, Hare, J. Welsh; 3rd row: Reichart, DeMoss, Plunket Link, Schaufele, Satterthwait, Hall, Shearin, Mueller; Absent: A dreone, Ireton, O'Connor.

Mr. O'Brien and his class seem to have strayed over so slightly from formal mathematics.

Juniors explore the world of Chemistry in their weekly lab period, The class is divided into two-man teams to insure direct participation in experiments.

Juniors bend over their texts of the Aeneid as Mr. Gannon says a few words about the inner radiance of Vergil's hexameters.

Fr. Schemel waits expectantly in his Novak II Religion class for an answer that seems to be well on its way.

Fr. Cawley awards honor cards and prizes at one of the academic assemblies that follow every marking period.

Students wait their turn in the library during the Thursday morning confession period, another element in Loyola's program of spiritual formation.

While the team practices in the background, 3F class members prepare their project for the Patterson game.

Whatever is going on back there must be more amusing than what is happening at the front of the room.

GREEK 3F 1st row: Gorman, Educat (Tres.), Schultz (V. Pres.), Mr. Barry, Anton (Pres.), F. Runge (Sec.), Ferguson; 2nd row: Krajewski, Whipple, Blair, Iwancio, Wells, Sheehan, Cuneo, O'Donnell, Holman; 3rd row: Flynn, Delclos, Vaeth, Phillips, Countess, Amrhein, Harvey.

All the collections seem to come during the Thursday morning confession period, even the one for the yearbook.

Charles Dickens comes to 2A as sophomores thumb through A Tale of Two Cities.

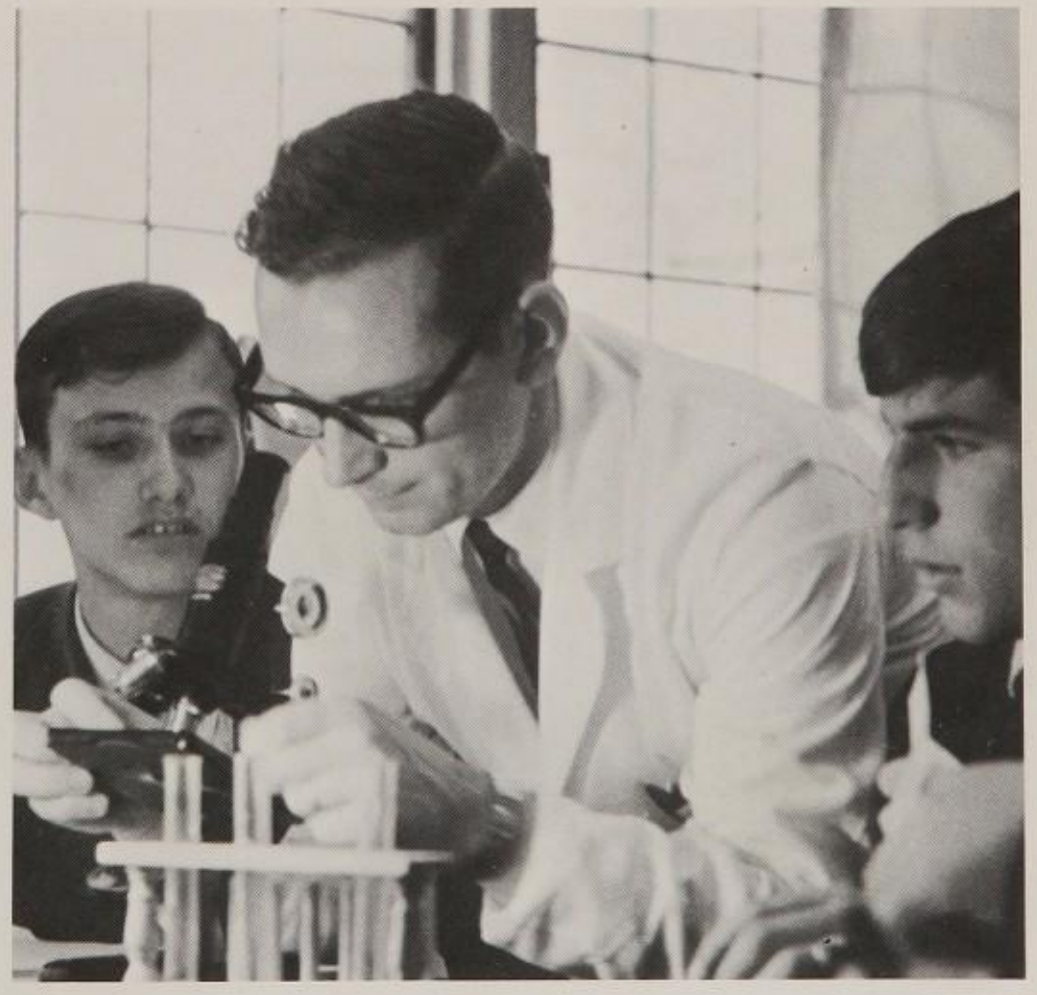
BIOLOGY 2B—1st row: Everett, Morrocco, DiBerardo, Fox (Sec.), Verderamo (Pres.), Fr. Harper, Novak (V. Pres.), Gelwicks (Tres.), Costello, Rohm; 2nd row: Brown, Davies, Jones, Emory, Carmen, Boyle, Hildebrant, DiMarcantonio, Meisenhelder, J. Henderson, Stankiewicz; 3rd row: Shannon, James Brulinski, J. Welsh, Morrow, Brannan, Arthur, Lyon, T. Kennedy, Fowler.

Loyola studen ts fill the Cathedral of Mary our Queen for the Mass of the Holy Spirit, the formal opening of the school year.



Mr. Urbancic puts a specimen under the microscope during one of the sophomores' weekly sessions in the Biology laboratory.

Fr. Miles guides the class through the New Testament. Direct study of the Scriptures is an essential part of the new Novak Religion course.

The machinery of Loyola's automated cafeteria forms the backdrop for conversation during the Sophomore-Junior lunch period.

Mr. Lalley checks a sophomore's notebook in American History class, a complement to the World History program in freshman year.

Fr. Cawley introduces the student speakers at Loyola's own political rally, held five days before the Presidential election.

Four of 2E's finest scramble across the cafeteria roof to post two signs welcoming the Patterson Clippers to Loyola.

The recess bell has rung and 2E streams out of St. Mary's Hall on its way to the cafeteria next door.

All the teacher wants is the written homework, but he may not get it without an argument.

Mr. Carrigan presides as 2F's Greek scholars gather in study groups.

Fr. Bradley welcomes the class of 1968 to Loyola with the Principal's Address on the first day of school.

1A students reach for their Bibles as Fr. Linskey opens Religion class.

Barely visible amid stacks of textbooks, freshmen wander through the Biology lab, a temporary replacement for the bookstore during the back-to-school rush.

A freshman leaps high in the air to intercept in an intramural flag-football game.

Under the auspices of Mr. O'Brien and the cheerleaders, freshmen assemble on the football field to learn Loyola's cheers.

Freshman year isn't difficult, once you learn how to carry the books around.

Freshmen and their fathers gather in the school library to meet the faculty at the start of the academic year.

Fr. Cullen gives the Freshmen one of the conferences of their first Loyola retreat, just before offering Mass in the school lounge.

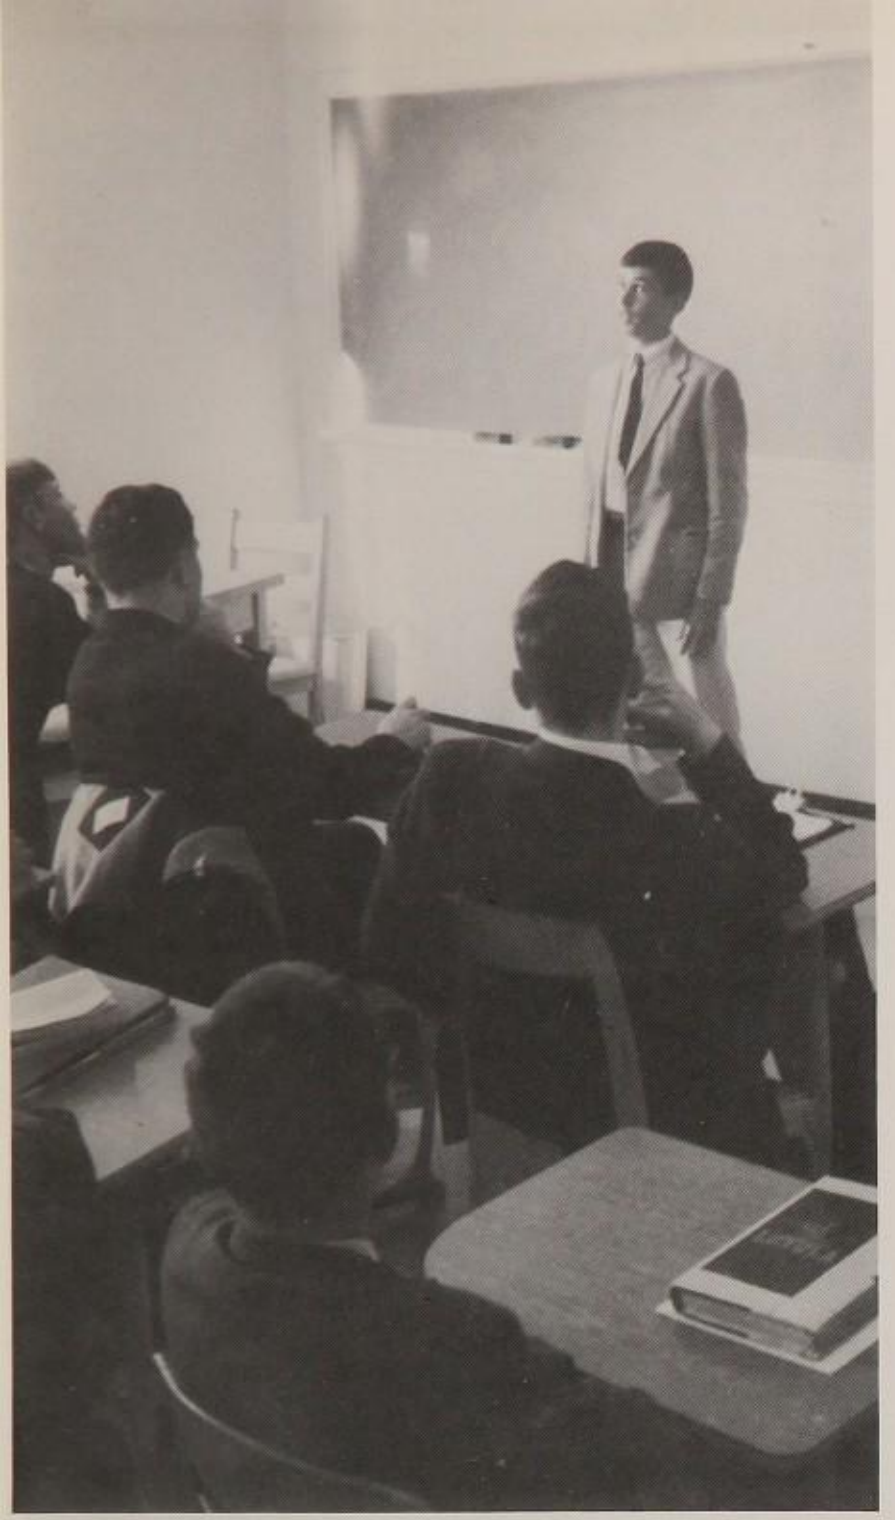
Mr. Urbancic supplies the freshmen with St. Mary's Hall essentials: combination locks.

Fr. Carboy leads his homeroom class across the campus to St. Mary's Hall and the beginning of their academic careers at Loyola.



A freshman entertains Mr. Welsh's 1F English class with an original piece of literary criticism.

Mr. Bertin explains the intricacies of Latin syntax to one of 1F's more contemplative members.

STUDENT COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

President . . . . . Jim Kilkowski
Vice-President . . . . . John Weetenkamp
Secretary . . . . . Henry Bogdan
Treasurer . . . . . Pat Moran

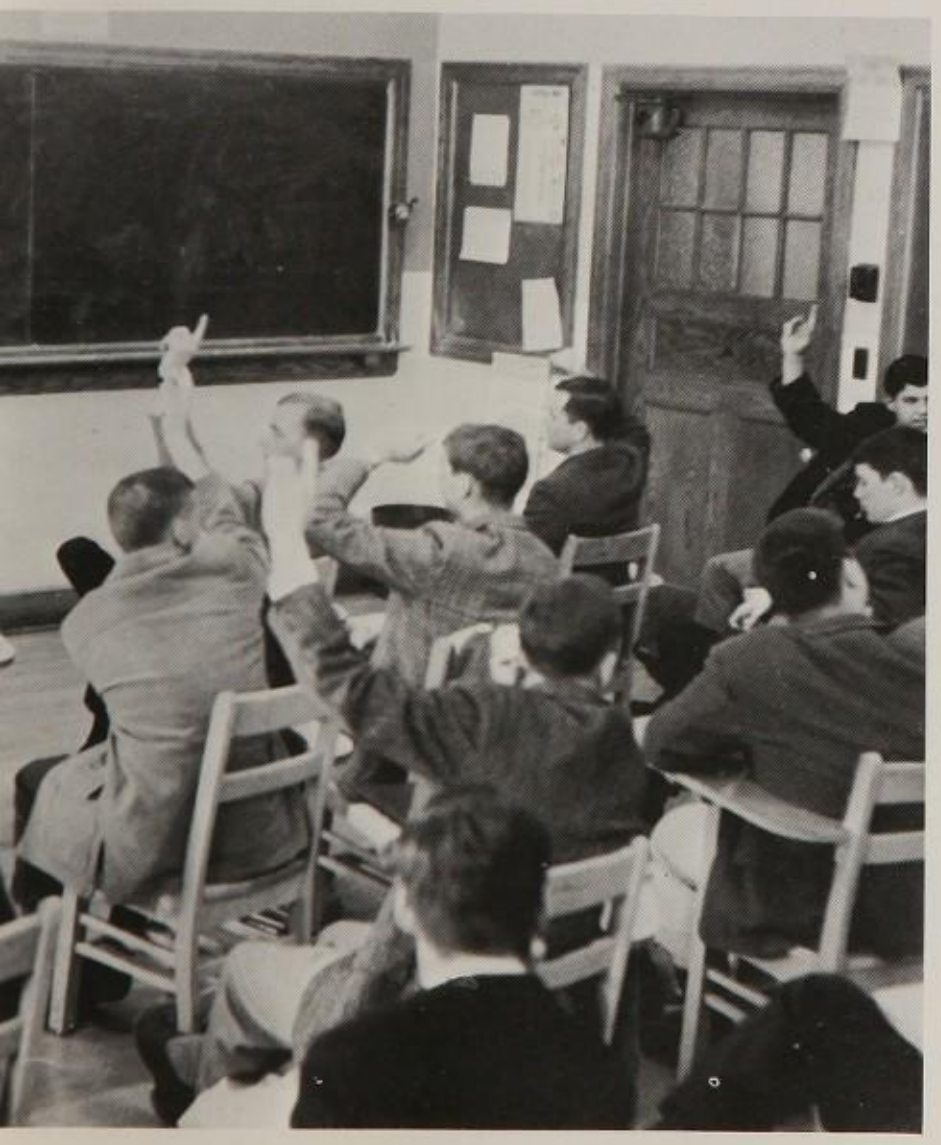
Activities: Ron Comfort, Gary Seeber, Joe Quinn, Dennis Strayhan, Howard Bradley, Ray Comenzo, Darby Boyle, John Kelly.

Moderator . . . . . Francis Lalley, S.J.

Dave Kazmerowski, 4D class president, points out to eighth-graders at St. Joseph's, Texas, the advantages of a Loyola education.

Jim Kilkowski and Student Council Moderator Mr. Lalley discuss the agenda for the weekly Monday afternoon meeting.

Curious students survey the hundreds of paperbacks on display during the Student Council-sponsored Book Fair in mid-February.

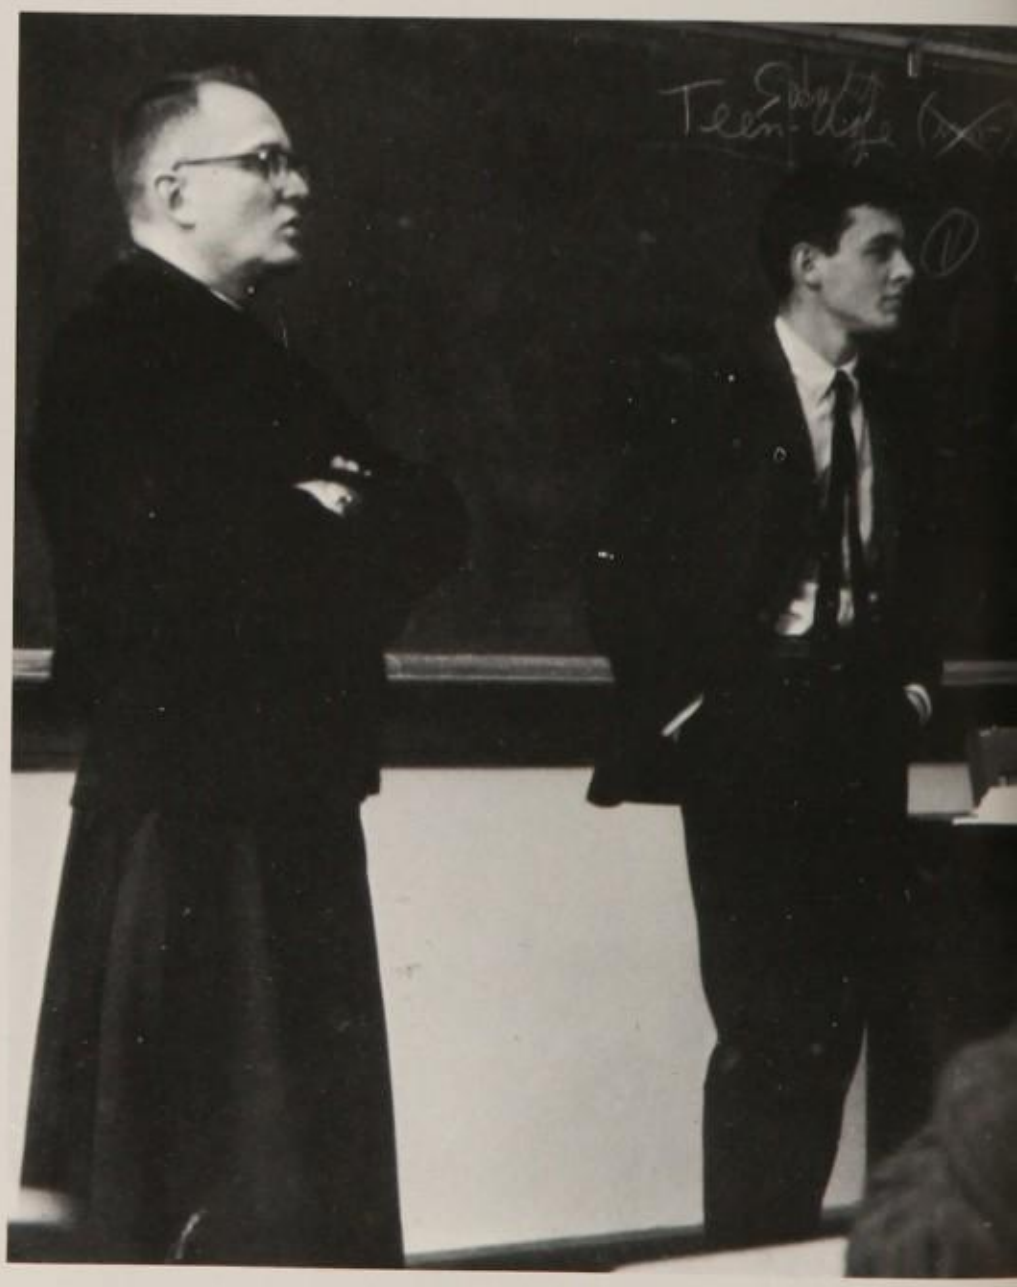


The ayes have it as the Council approves a proposal to give achievement awards to participants in non-athletic extra-curricular activities.

Sodality

Sodalist Lou Baird serves Fr. Cooney as he offers Friday morning Mass for the senior class. Mass is also available to Sodalists on Thursday morning during confession period.

Junior sodalist John Gray checks the work of one of his pupils at St. Francis Xavier Grade School. The tutoring program for under-privileged children, the Sodality's newest apostolate, supplies teachers to two other downtown parishes as well, St. Pius V and St. Peter Claver.



Moderator Fr. Sanders and Prefect Ron Comfort listen to plans for the Loyola-sponsored Sodality Convention held in late February.

On Friday afternoons, Loyola sodalists entertain and feed the children at Rosewood Hospital; on Sundays, they aid the Trinitarian Fathers charged with the spiritual care of the boys and girls. Here, Junior Rick Willemain helps to feed a bed-ridden child in one of the wards.

Mr. Murphy presides over the weekly meeting of the Junior-Senior Sodality as members consider practical applications of Sodality principles.

Debate

Loyola debaters plan team strategy before their tournament victory at Our Lady of Good Counsel High School in Washington, D.C.

A visiting debater from Dulaney High School presents her case in a debate with Loyola's varsity.

Fundamental to the continued success of the Loyola debate team are the long hours spent in research and in careful examination of the topic's every aspect.

Moderator Mr. Bertin and a visiting debater apply themselves to the thankless but necessary job of judging practice debates.

Dramatics

Blakefield Players president Mike Blair, a detective in the spring play, examines a piece of evidence at the request of prosecutor Jacek Mostwin.

Mr. Barry directs Witness for the Prosecution rehearsals as Ray Comenzo, accused of murder, consults attorney Pete Gzowski and his assistant, Kevin Fox.

Jan Jackson plays a housekeeper whose testimony is vital to the prosecution's case. This year, for the first time, girls took part in a Loyola school play.

Arthur Eich does not need Mike Blair's help to make an important transfer in The Soldier Who Became a Great Dane, Loyola's One-Act Play Contest entry.

In the same play, Canine Corps members Randy Schaub, Pete Gzowski, and Dave Dell are puzzled by a strange replacement for their unit, Private Hank Campfield.

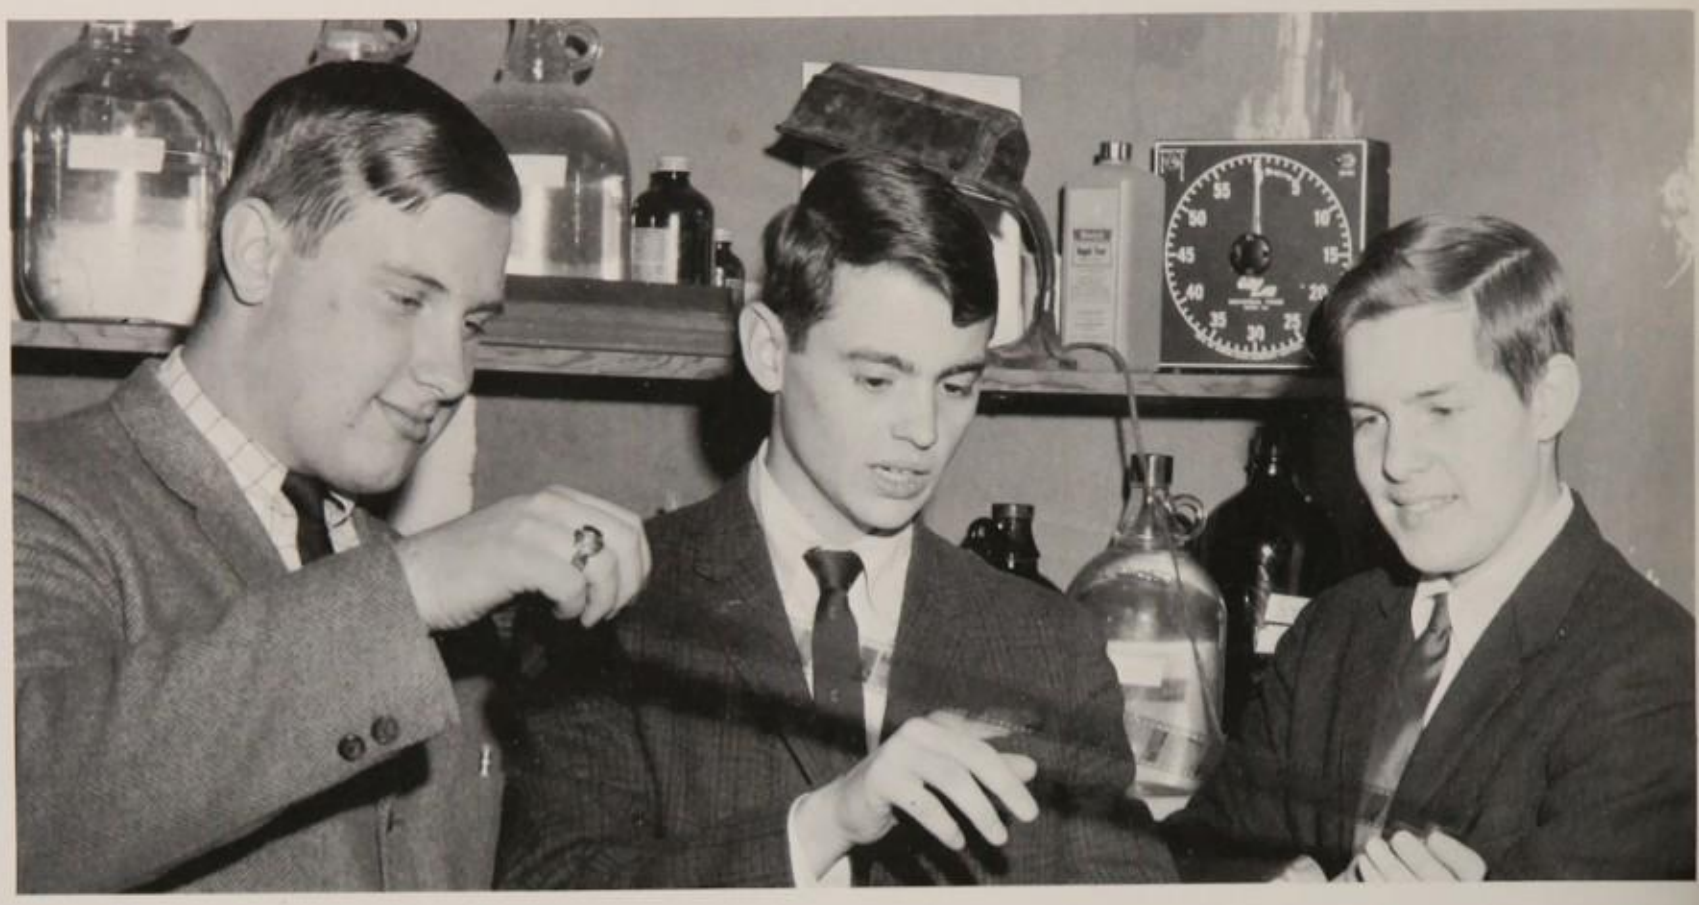
Camera Club

Club members examine a strip of freshly-developed negatives. The Club allows its members to learn every phase of the photographer's craft: picture-taking, developing, enlarging, printing and drying.



Club moderator Fr. Healey directs John Povlishock and Mike Dobropolski as they develop prints in the Club's tower workroom.

Club President Dennis Strayhan stands poised with camera and flash attachment at the Loyola-Curley wrestling match. The Club supplies both the yearbook and the newspaper with action photos of athletic events.

Radio Club

Jeff Derr repairs a piece of transmission equipment at one of the Club's weekly meetings in the Physics Laboratory.

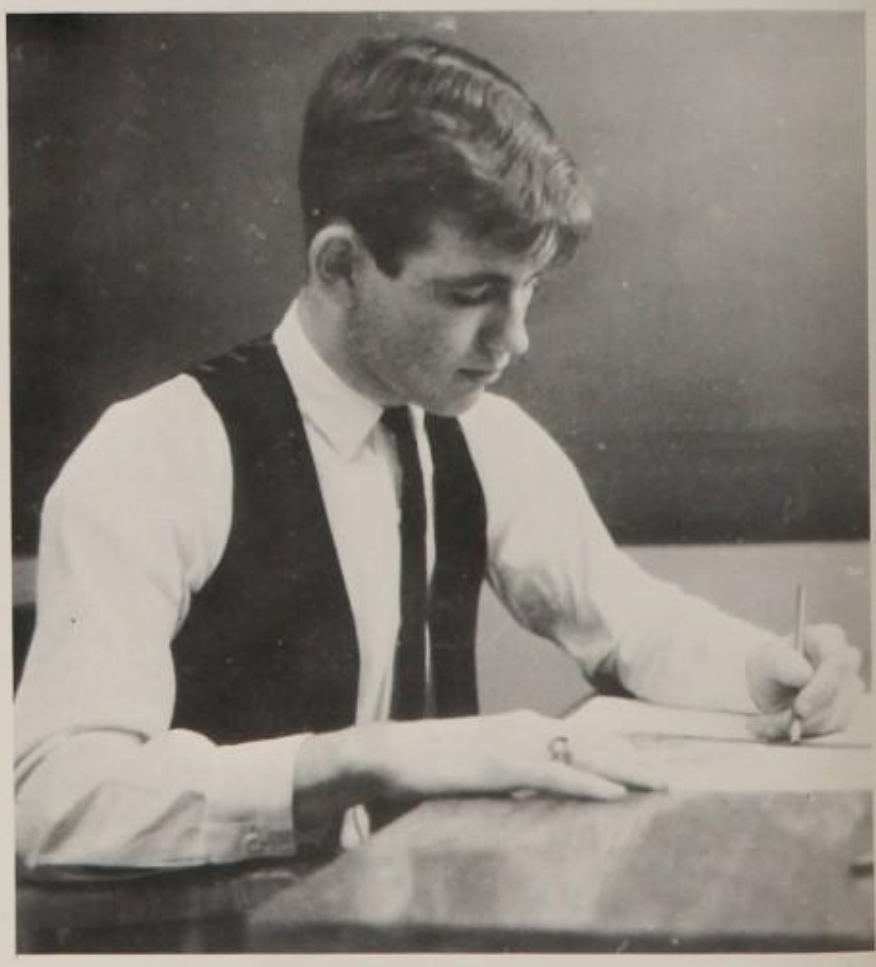
Father Cooney, Club moderator, supervises Jay Anderson's soldering of a delicate wire connection.

The Radio Club, known to other short-wave operators as W3RNC, provides Loyola students with an opportunity to expand and develop their technological interests and skills.

Blue and Gold

Seniors Tom McDonough, John Kelly, and Ray Comenzo, plan format for the Spring issue of Loyola's literary magazine, the Blue and Gold.

Blue and Gold moderator Mr. Curran and Editor-in-Chief Ray Comenzo review a promising article for the Spring issue.



Staff artist George Walters appraises a potential sketch for the literary magazine's final issue of the year.

Boosters

The Loyola cheerleaders, an integral part of the Boosters, fire up the students at a rally before the Dons' grid victory over Mt. St. Joe.

Despite a big Calvert Hall lead, Bernie Smith and Bill Bosley keep Don spirits alive during a long Thanksgiving morning.

Boosters President Darby Boyle joins with John Kelly and Mr. O'Brien to organize a mid-winter pep rally for the basketball, swimming and wrestling teams.

Loyolan

Jim Schaefer prepares copy for the March edition. For students with journalistic leanings, the newspaper is a constructive outlet.

Loyolan moderator Mr. Carrigan and two staff members scan last-minute corrections before sending the final issue to press.

Juniors Mike Cuneo and Charley Kenney find time for diversion in the newspaper office. Or is that a layout in process?

Editor-in-chief Howard Bradley, sports editor Nace Toner, and managing editor Ron Anton position an article in a front-page layout.

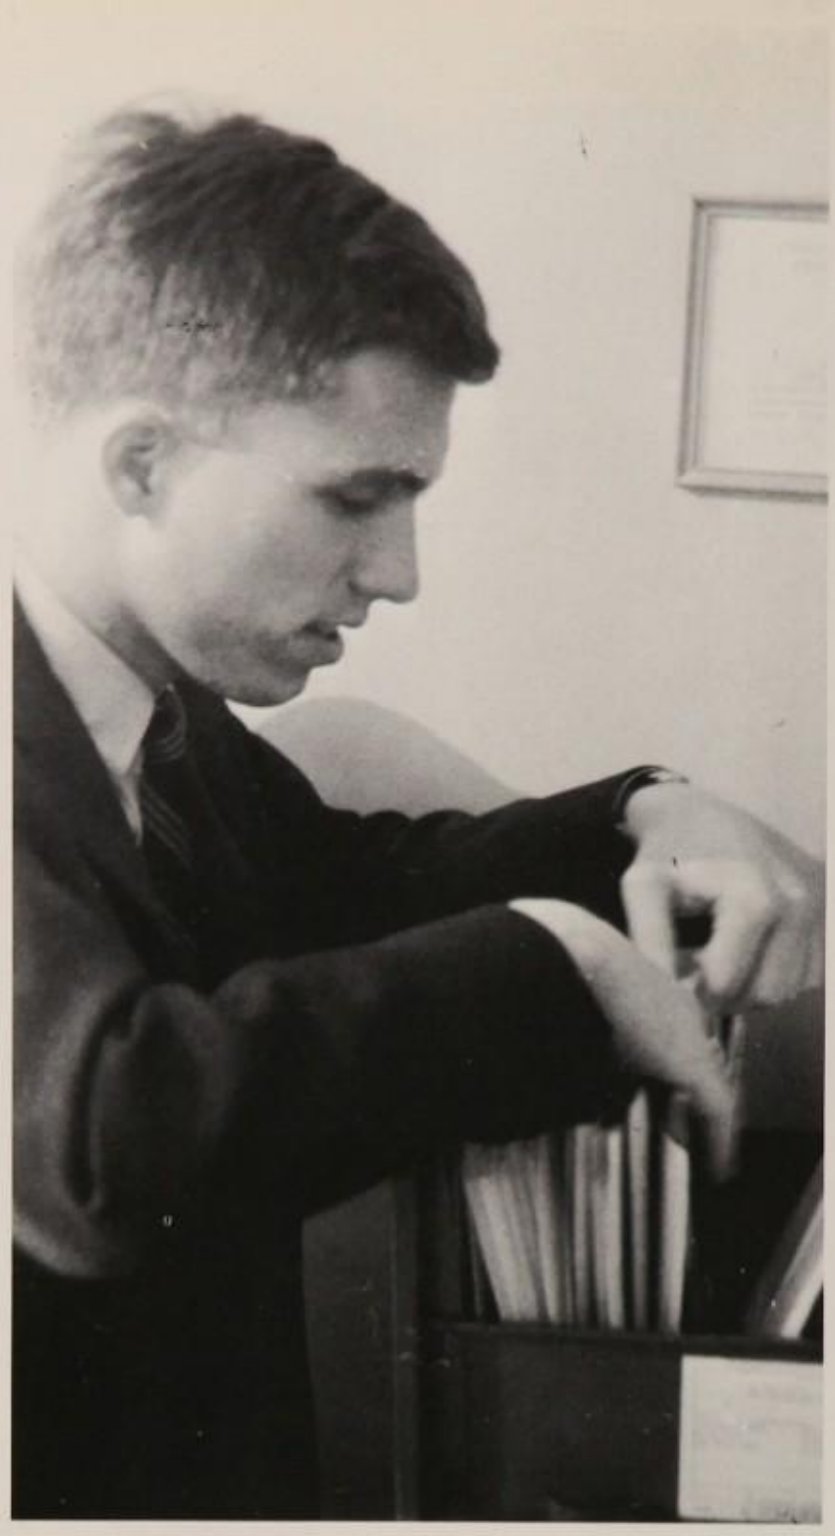
Loyola



Jerry Coogan sifts through sheaves of yearbook photos, looking for the precise shot to fill out an incomplete layout.

Jim Ball and Tom Mosmiller hammer away at typewriters in the yearbook's tower office, preparing Activities Section copy.

Freshmen insure themselves a yearbook by reserving a copy on the first day of school. Business Manager Tim Kimmitt and his staff handle the collections and the accounting.

Dave Fudge and Joe Quinn concentrate on a proportional scale as they crop pictures to height and width required by yearbook layouts.

Mothers' Club

Corresponding secretary Mr. Howard Bradley reports to the monthly Mothers' Club board meeting, presided over by faculty moderator Fr. Schemel and Club president Mrs. Howard Hatter.

Each Wednesday afternoon, the Dorcas unit, composed of past and present Loyola mothers, meets in Father Rector's office to repair the vestments and the altar linens used by the Jesuit community.

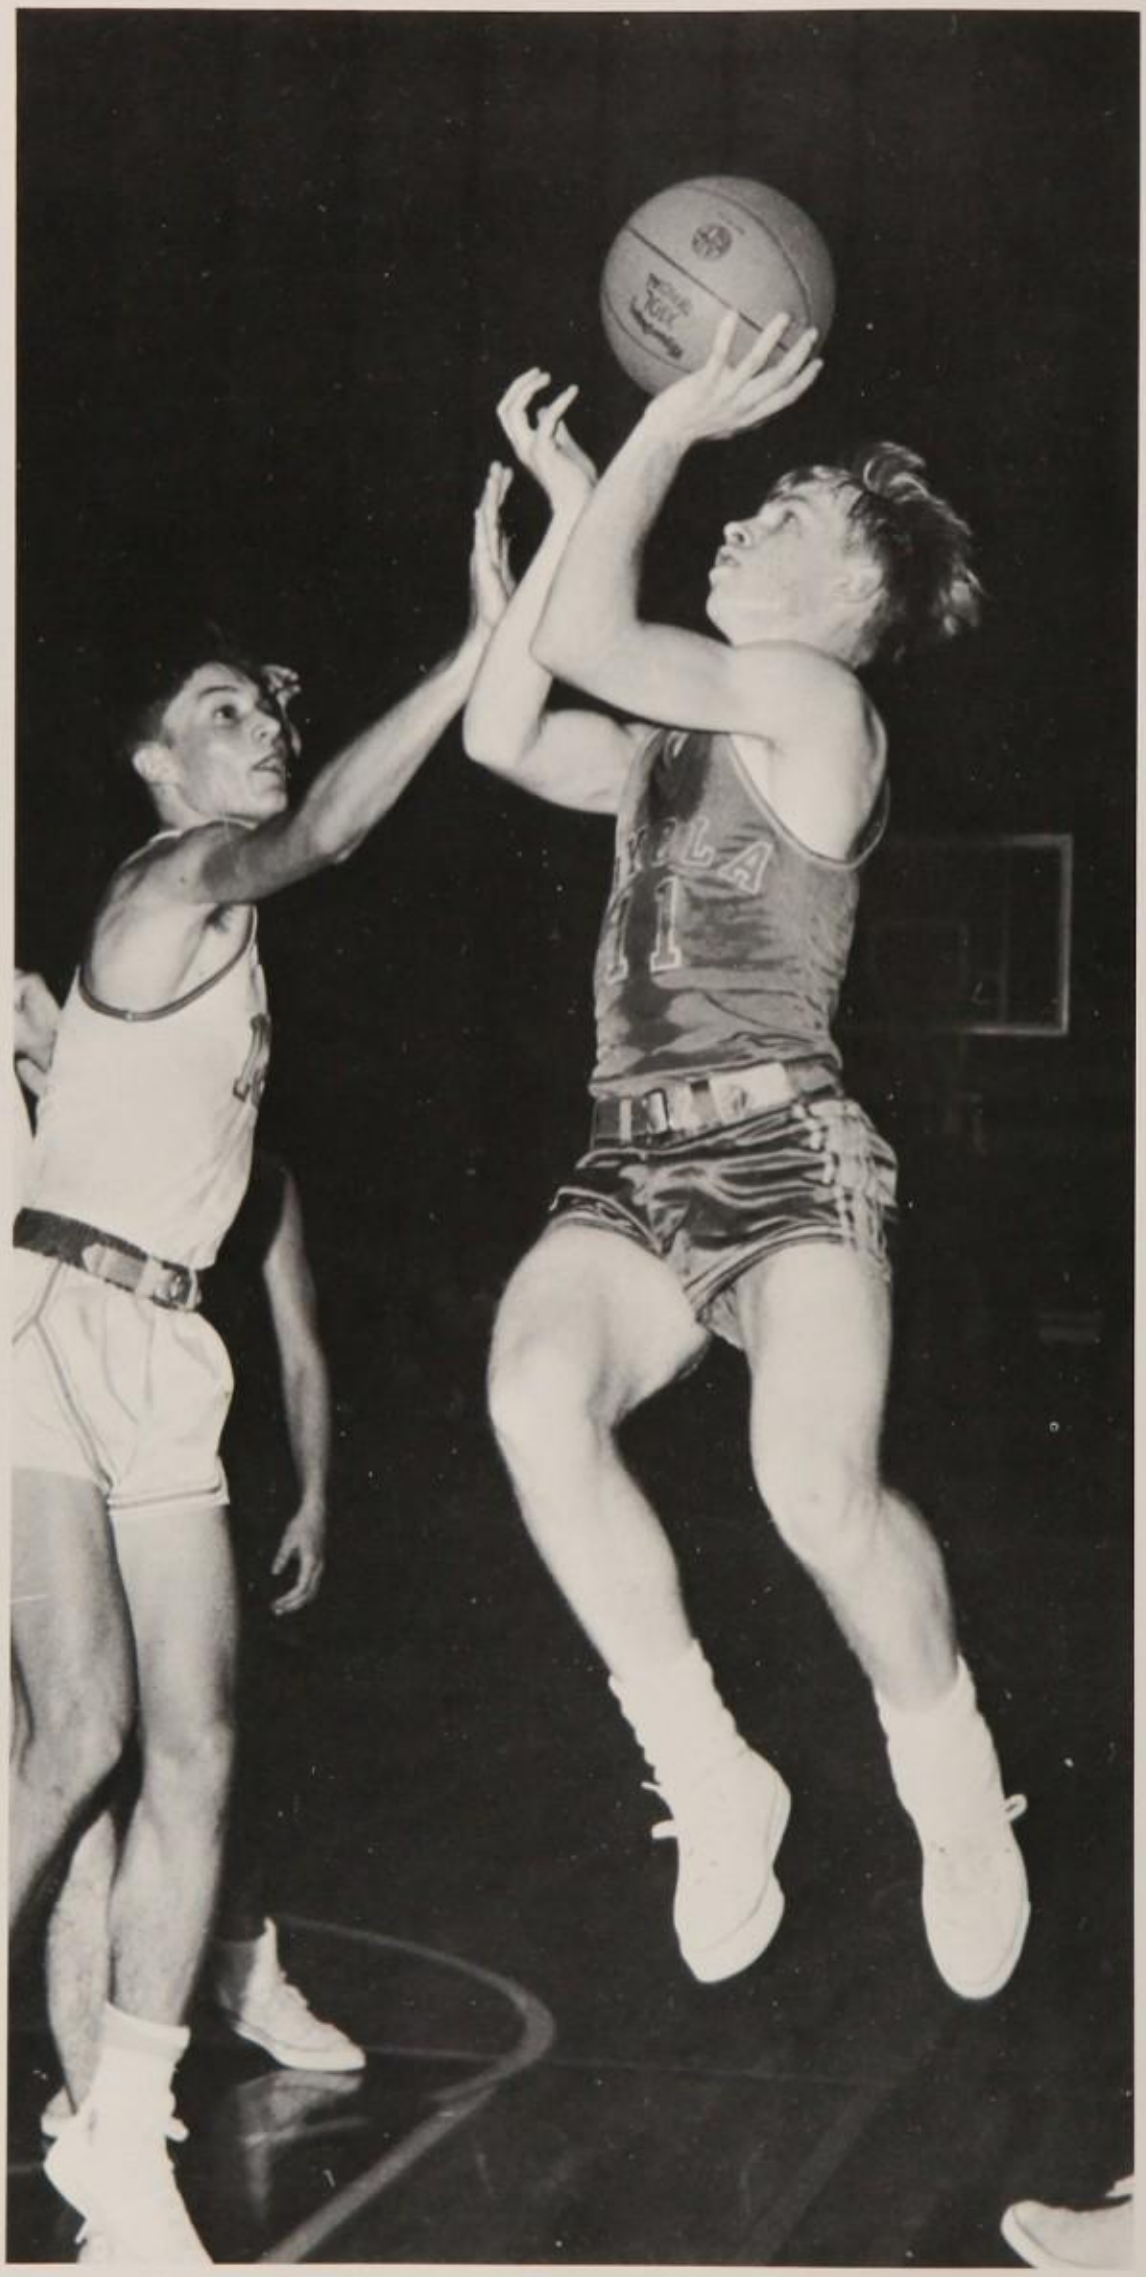
A tour of the school and its facilities, conducted by the Jesuit scholastics, preceded the tea for the freshman mothers, the first event on the Mothers' Club full social calendar.

Fathers' Club

The annual Open House Dance, sponsored by the Fathers' Club, brought parents together for an evening of dancing and relaxation.

Loyola parents dig in at the annual Fathers' Club Oyster Roast, an event that drew over five hundred guests into the school gymnasium.

Mr. Kennedy greets a volunteer worker in an Oyster Roast booth, while the Colts and the Forty-Niners hold the attention of the men in the background.



Sports

Football

Don Hoen shakes off a Mt. St. Joe tackler. Hoen scored four touchdowns in Loyola's 27-21 victory over Westminster, then turned in another great performance against the Gaels.

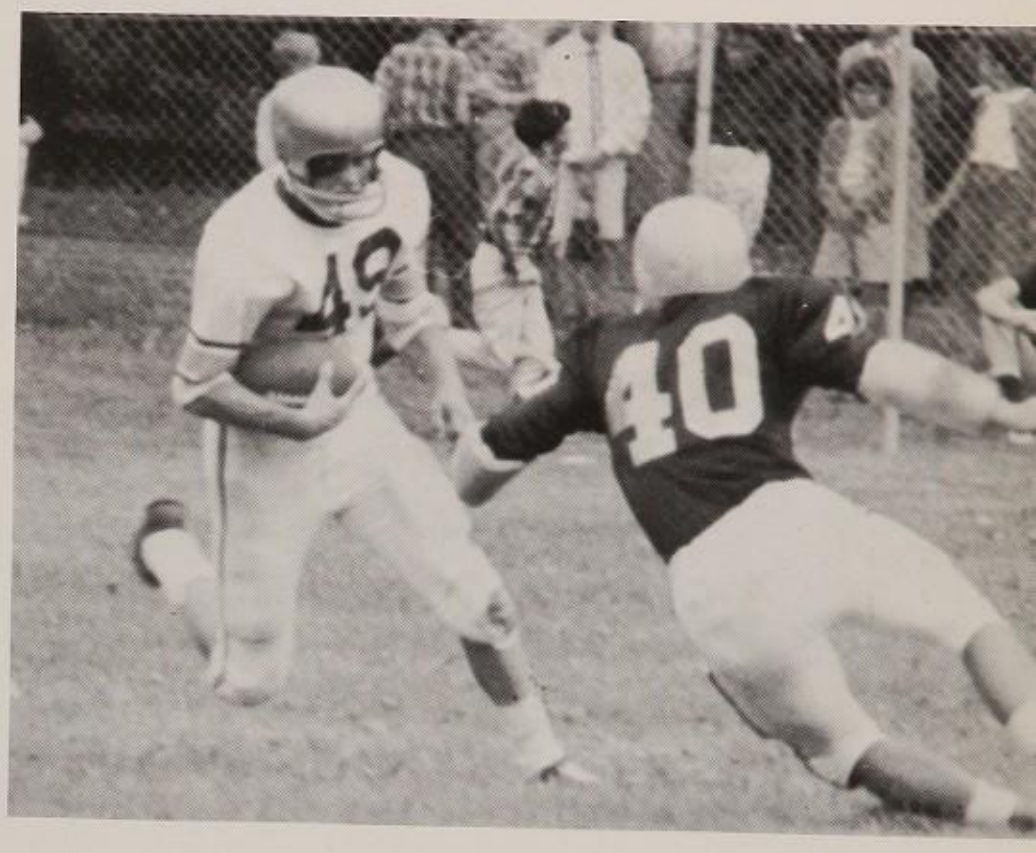
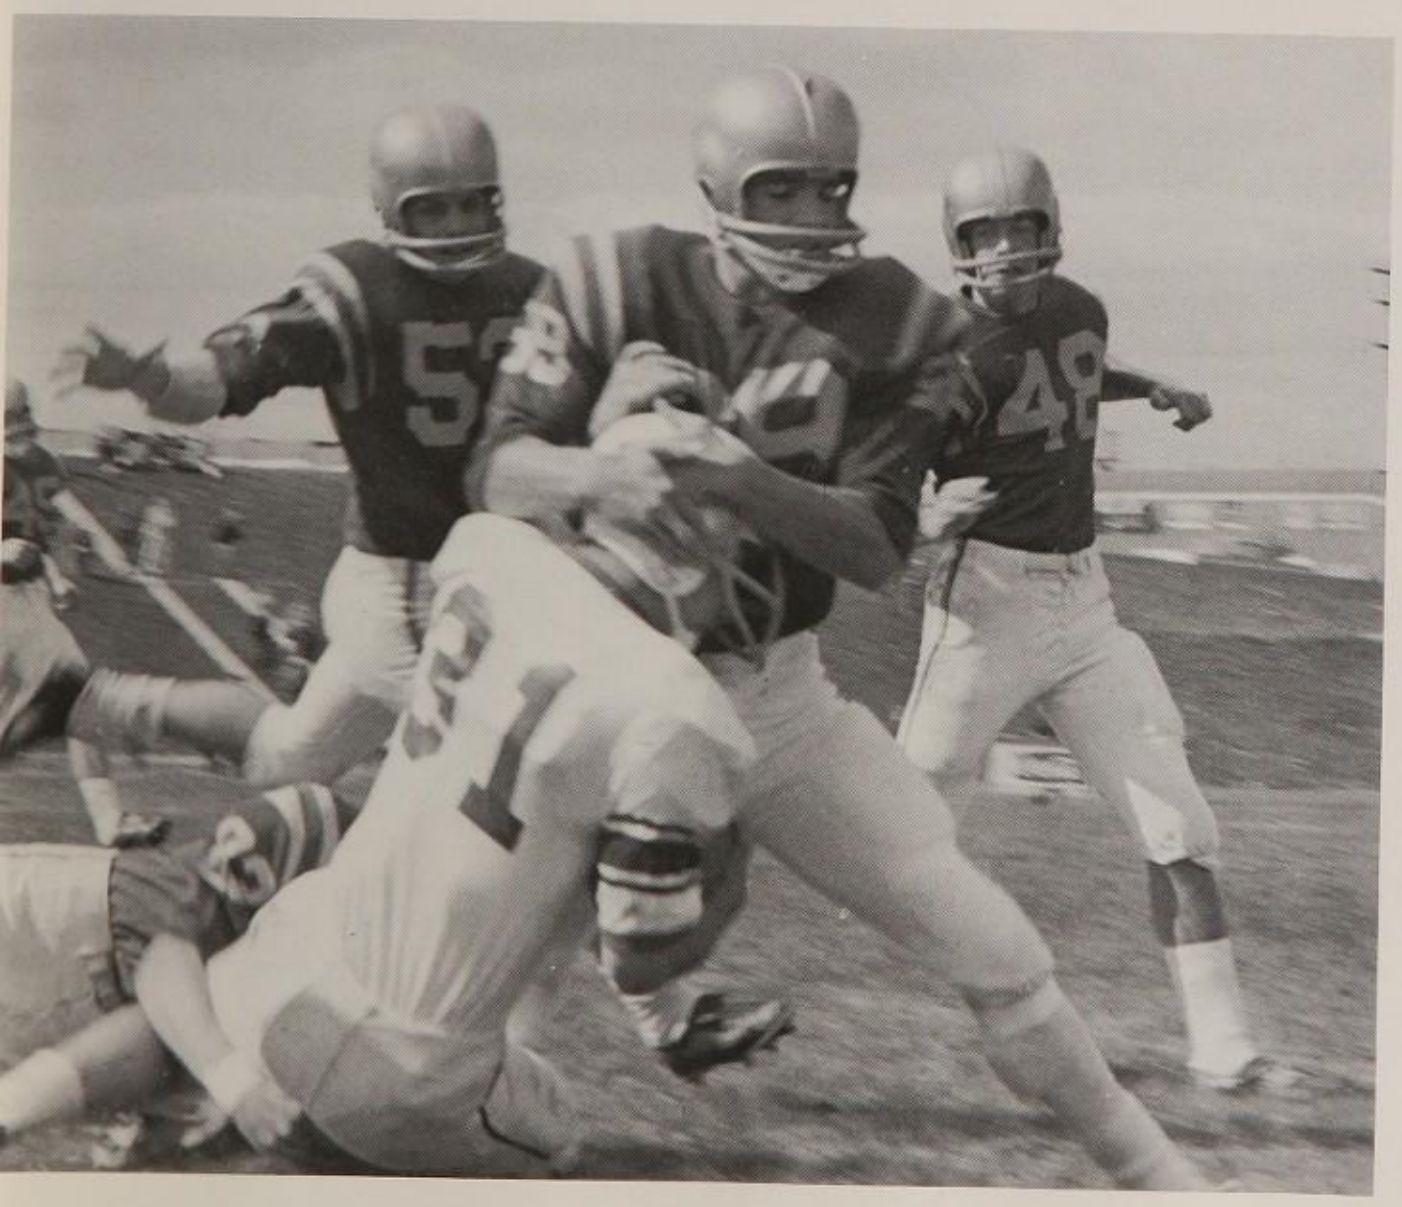
Rick Diggs takes Jim Kilkowski's hand off, lowers his shoulder and drives upfield for yardage against City.

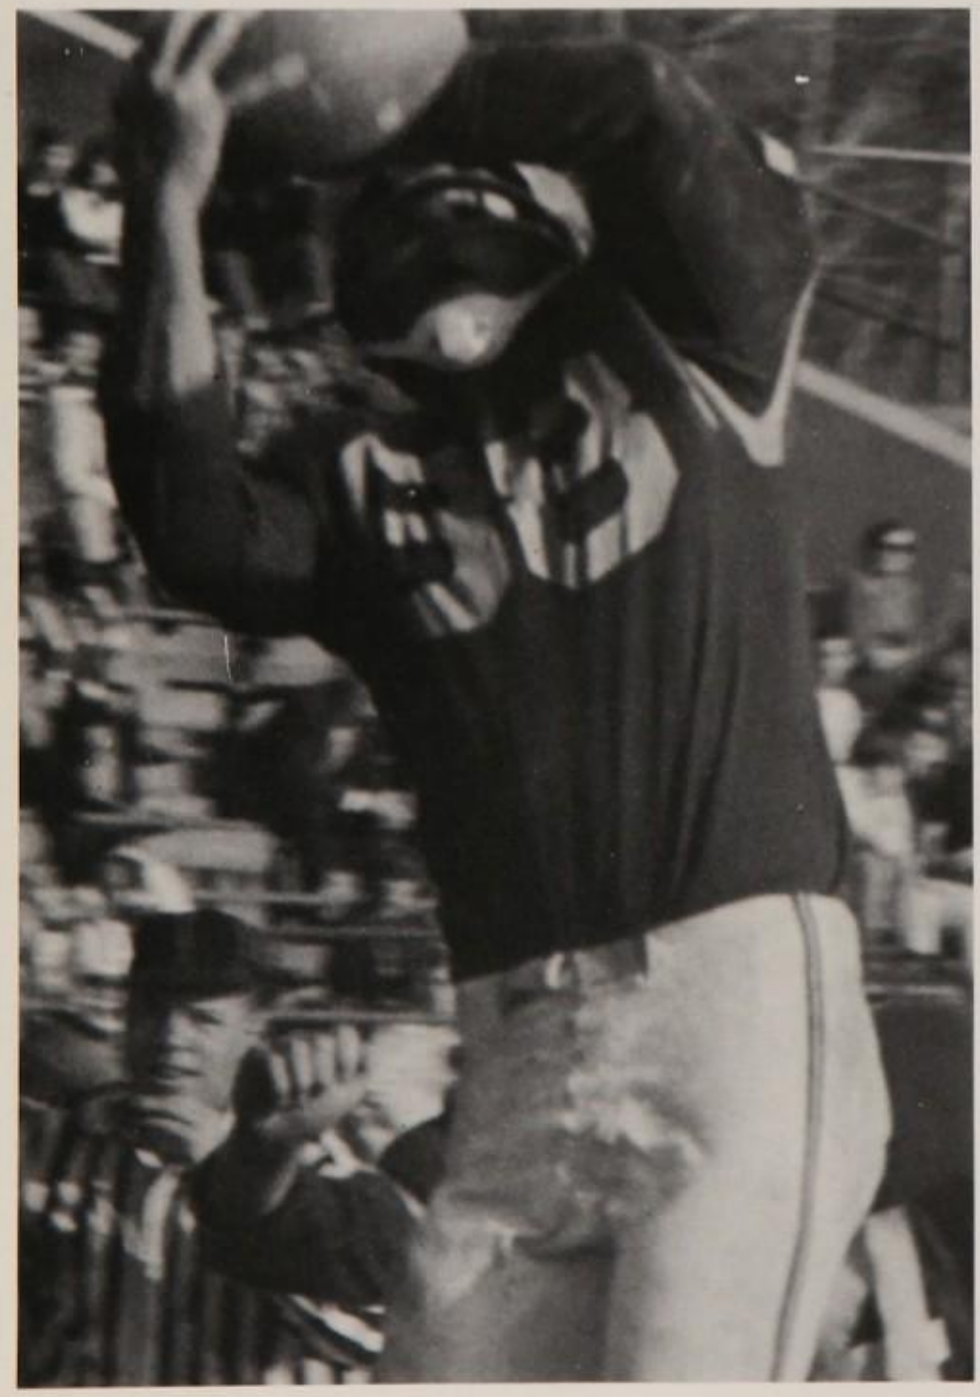




Rick Diggs cuts away from a St. Joe Prep tackler. The junior fullback, in his second year as a starter, was the Dons workhorse ballcarrier.

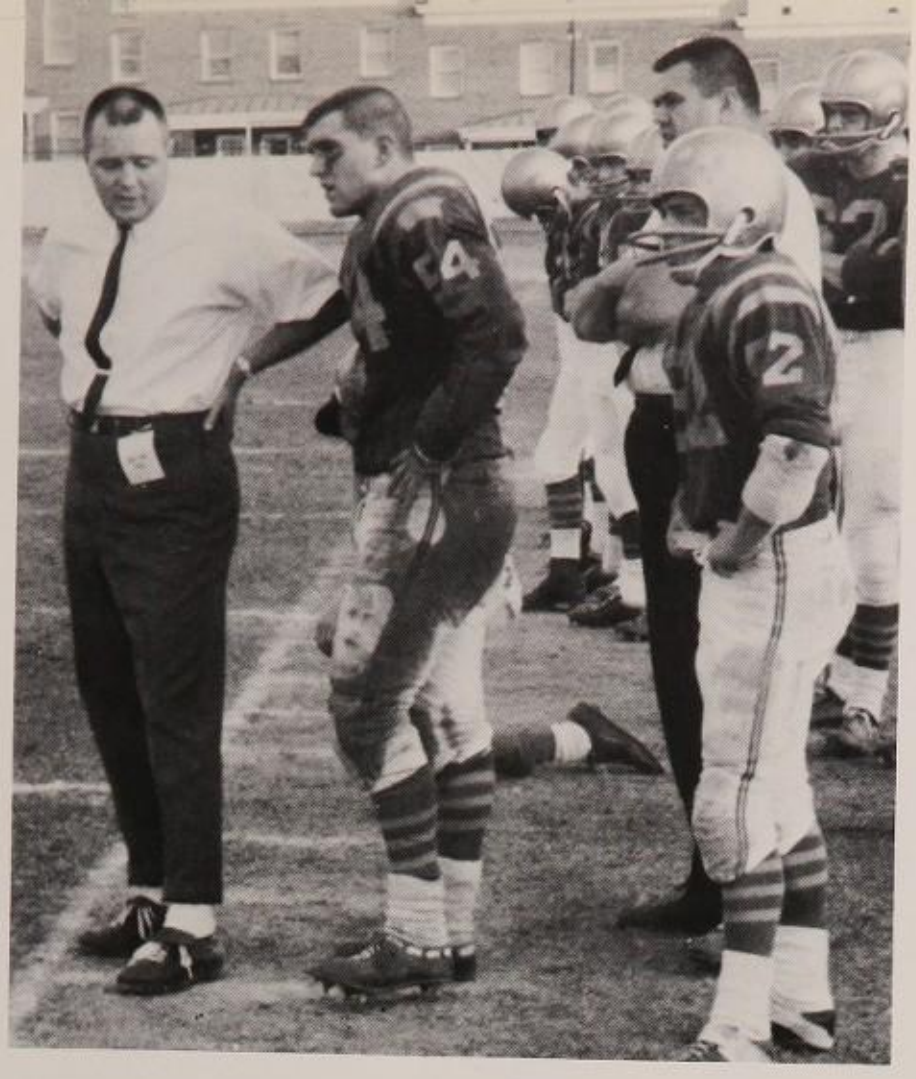
Ralph Fitzgerald and Don Hoen haul down Curley fullback, as Dons Butch Clemente and Gary Matz look on. The Dons beat Curley 20-8, for their first win of the season.

Gary Matz booms a punt out of his own end zone against City, as Jim Boyer heads down field to lead the Don's coverage.



Don Hoen makes a leaping catch of Jim Kilkowski's 16-yard pass for the Don's second touchdown against Mt. St. Joe. Hoen scored earlier on an 11-yard run to account for all of Loyola's points in a 12-6 victory.

Four Don tacklers stack up a St. Joe's Prep back short of a first down. Despite a game Loyola effort, the Hawklets won the season's opener, 13-0



Coaches Leo Broadhurst and John Welsh assesses a game situation with Jim Boyer and Butch Clemente along the Kirk Field Sideline.

Don linemen Lou Koslakowski, Jim Boyer, Mark Cristhilf, and Jeff Mann converge on a hapless Gael Ballcarrier.

Mike Edukat, loose in the Calvert Hall secondary, looks for an opening. Edukat's sure-fingered pass-receiving brightened Thanksgiving morning for Don rooters.

Jim Kilkowski, playing halfback against Douglass, sprints down the sidelines for long yardage. Later, Jim raced 70 yards with a Gary Matz pass for Loyola's only touchdown.

Mike Dugan and Dave Crist sandwich a Mt. St. Joe back and drop him after a short gain. The Don defense made the big plays when they needed to and balked every Gael drive.

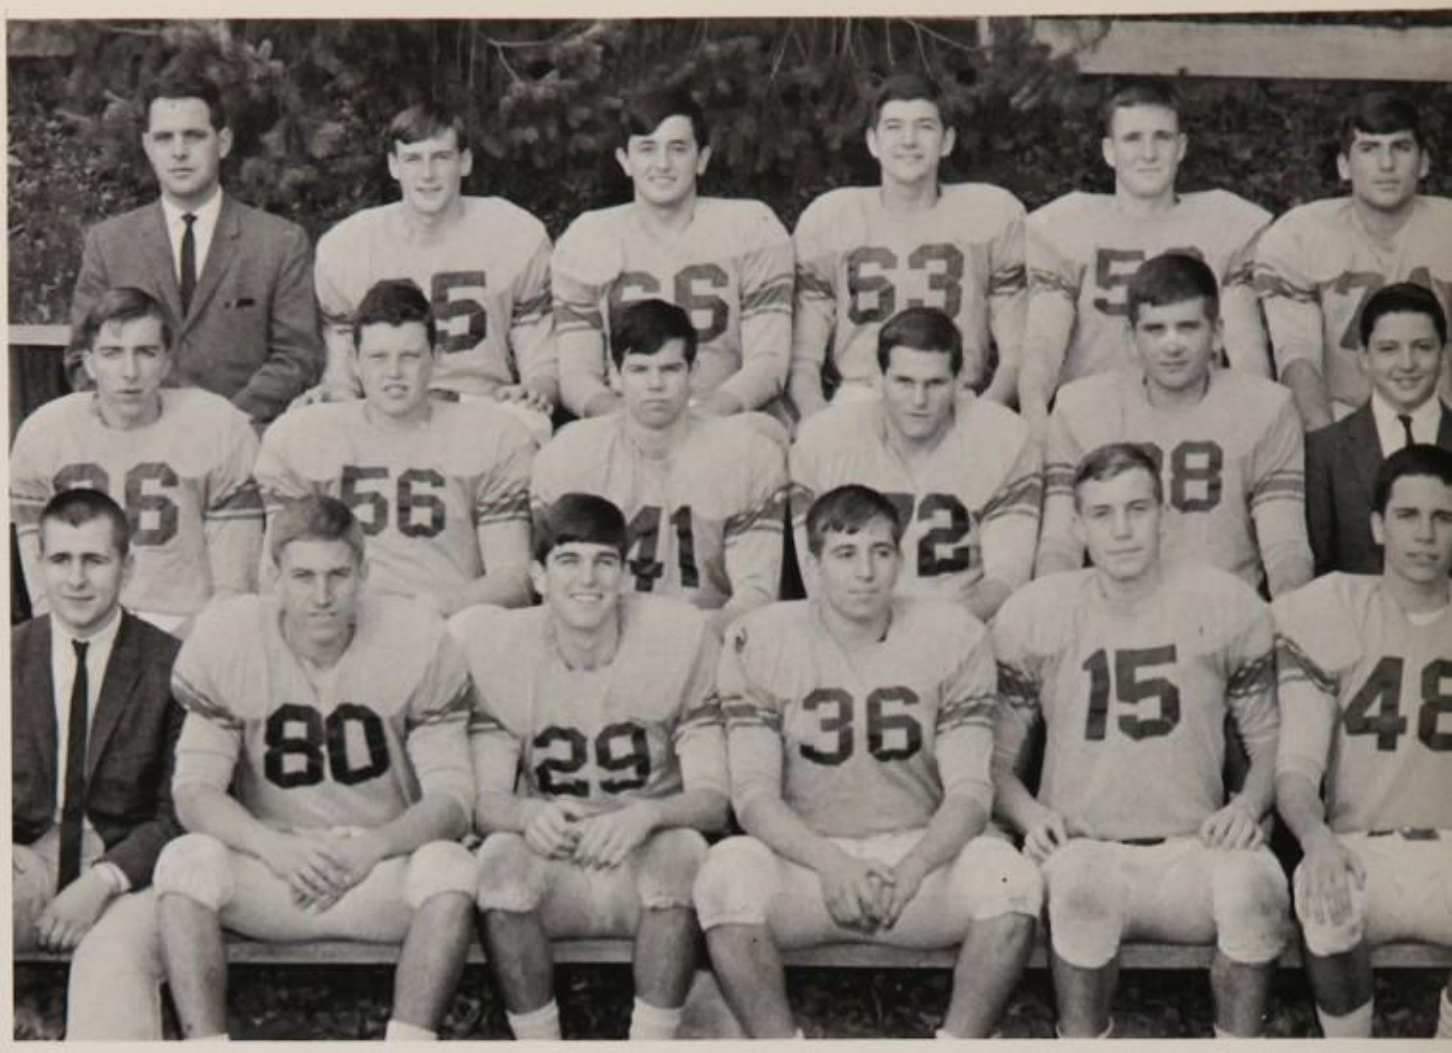
Gary Matz throws to Jim Kilkowski over Patterson's lunging left end. The Clippers scored on the opening kick-off and, though the Dons fought back gamely, held on to win, 14-6

Gary Matz drops back to pass, looking downfield for a receiver, while Butch Clemente picks off a blitzing Calvert Hall linebacker. Early breaks gave the Cardinals a lead they never lost.

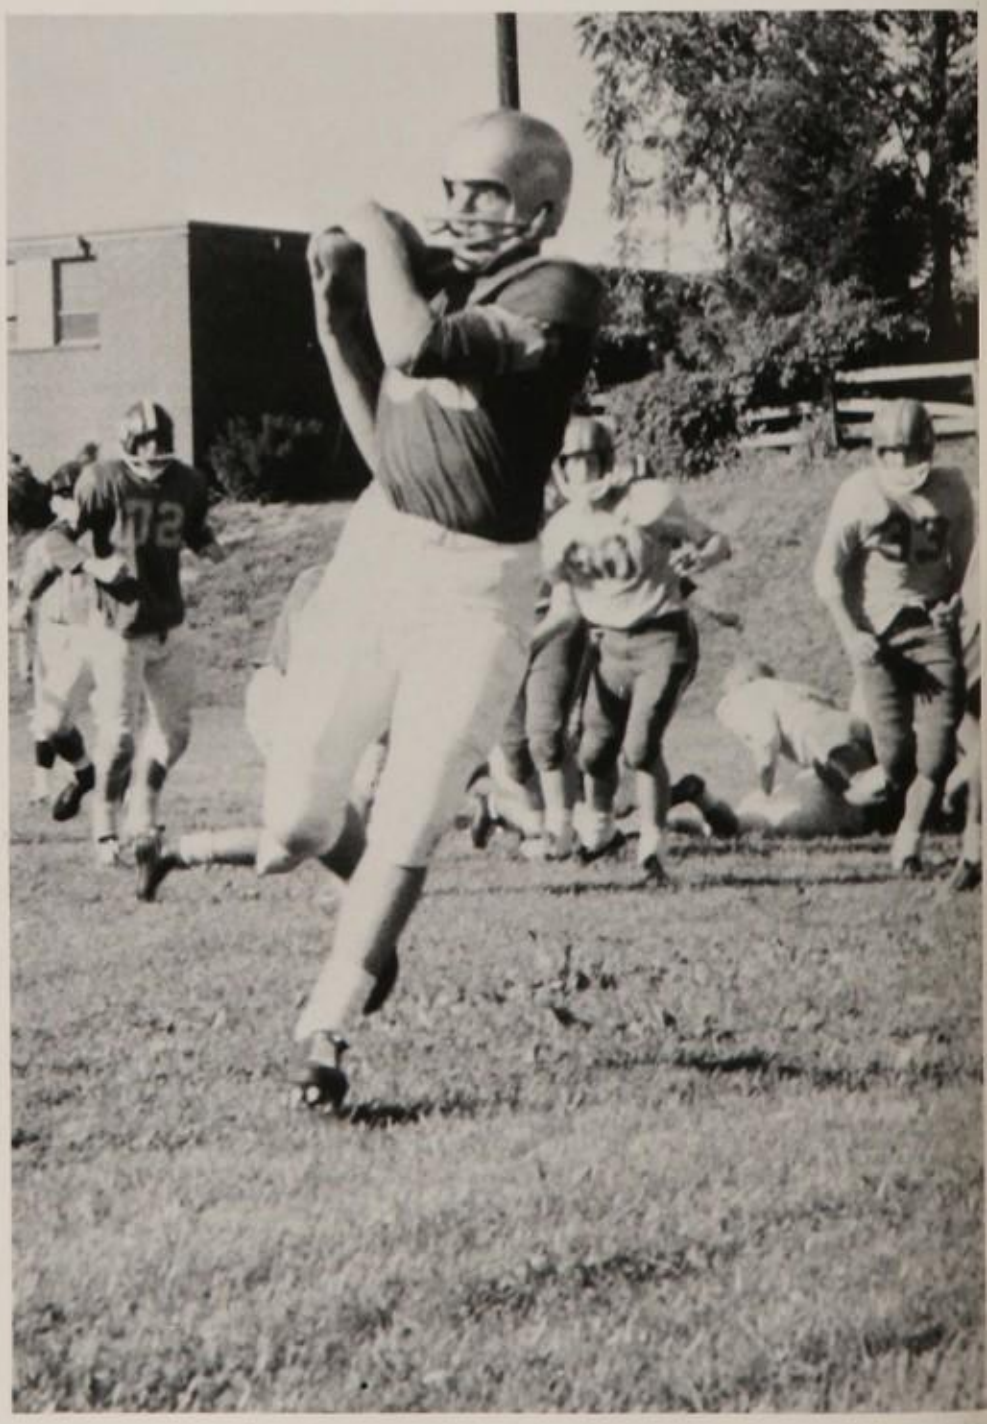
A Poly halfback finds yardage hard to come by as he tries Loyola's left end, but the Dons couldn't match the powerful Engineers.

Don blockers convoy Rick Diggs around right end for a sizable gain against City. Loyola held the M.S.A. champions scoreless in the second half, but lost the game, 14-0.

J.V. FOOTBALL TEAM—1st row: D. Schultz, Novak, J.G. Smith, J. Schaefer, Gunther, J. McGuire; 2nd row: Hamp, A. Brown, Henderson, Goodman, Sydnor, G. Carroll (mgr.); 3rd row: Mr. Prodey (coach), Ellenberger, Atsaides, Zaleski, Emory, Verderamo. Absent: Nordbrook, Zeidler.



J.V. blockers open a big hole in the Calvert Hall defense and Jim Smith rambles through it for long yardage. The Junior Varsity offense averaged better than 200 yards a game as it rolled to victories.



Jeff Novak gathers in a Jeff Gunther pass and takes off on a 50-yard scoring play against Calvert Hall. Loyola's 36-0 win was the first prep towards the Catholic League Championship.

Gary Matz scores against Forest Park. The junior guard shook off an early-season ankle injury to team up in the Don backcourt with Don Giblin.

Senior center Jim Taneyhill drives for the basket against a tight York Catholic defense.

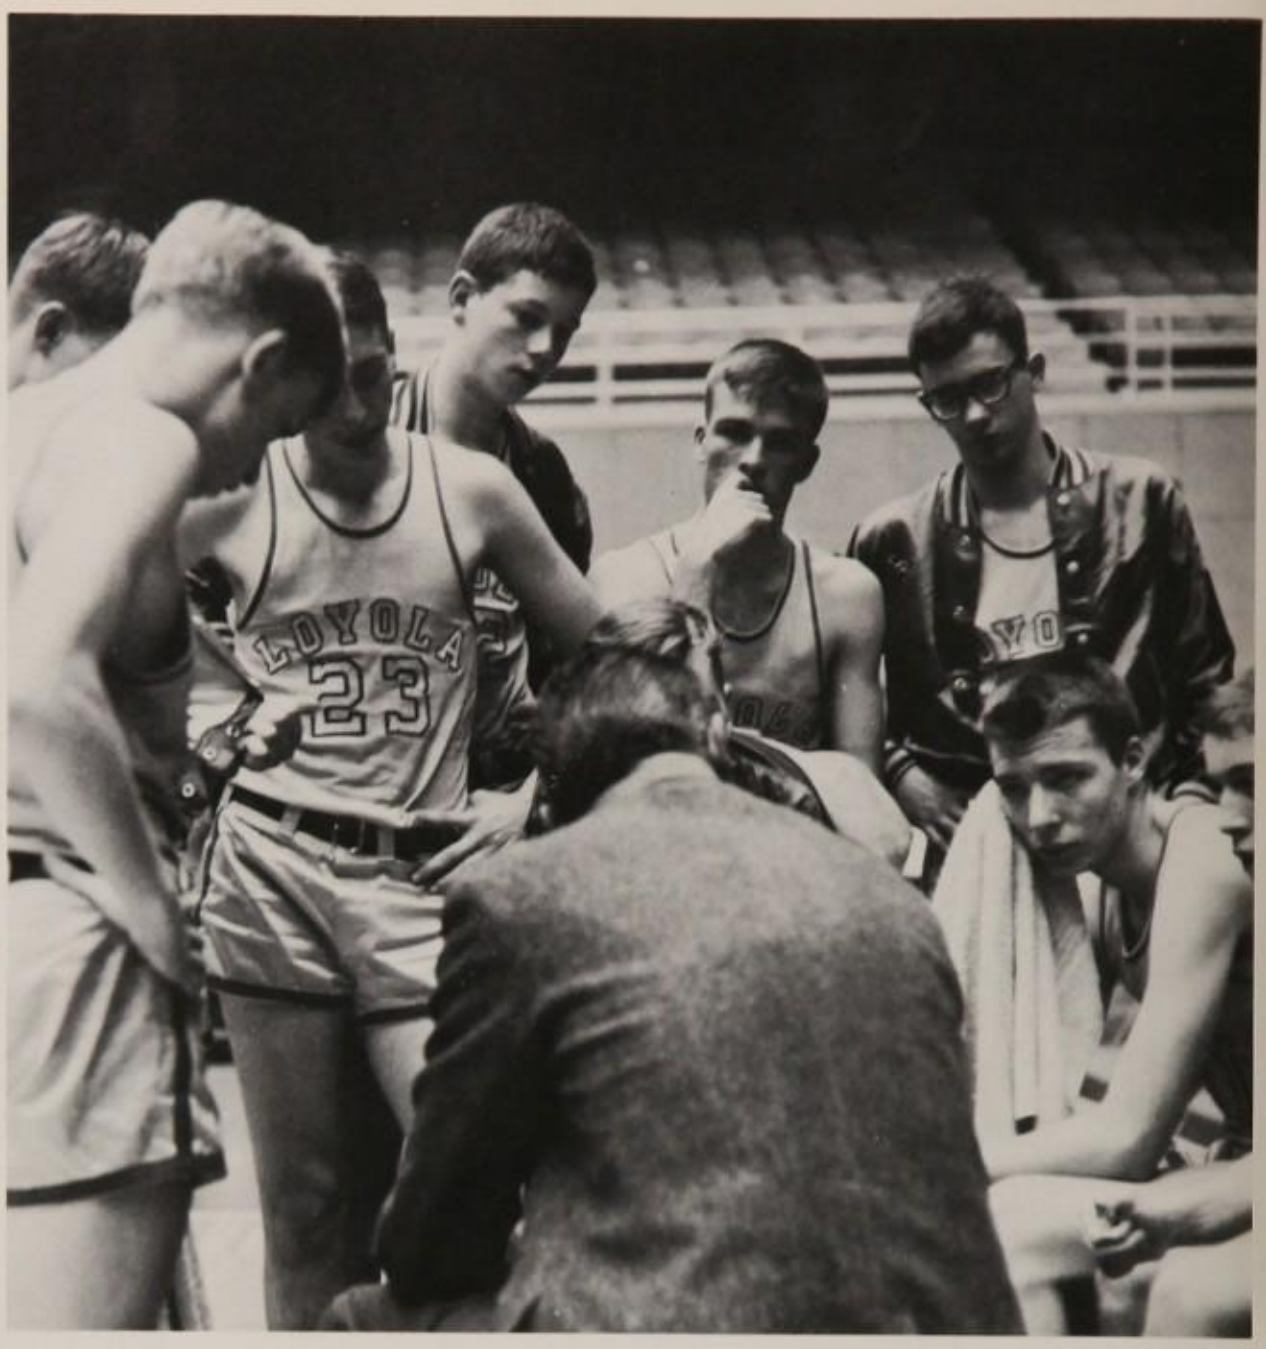
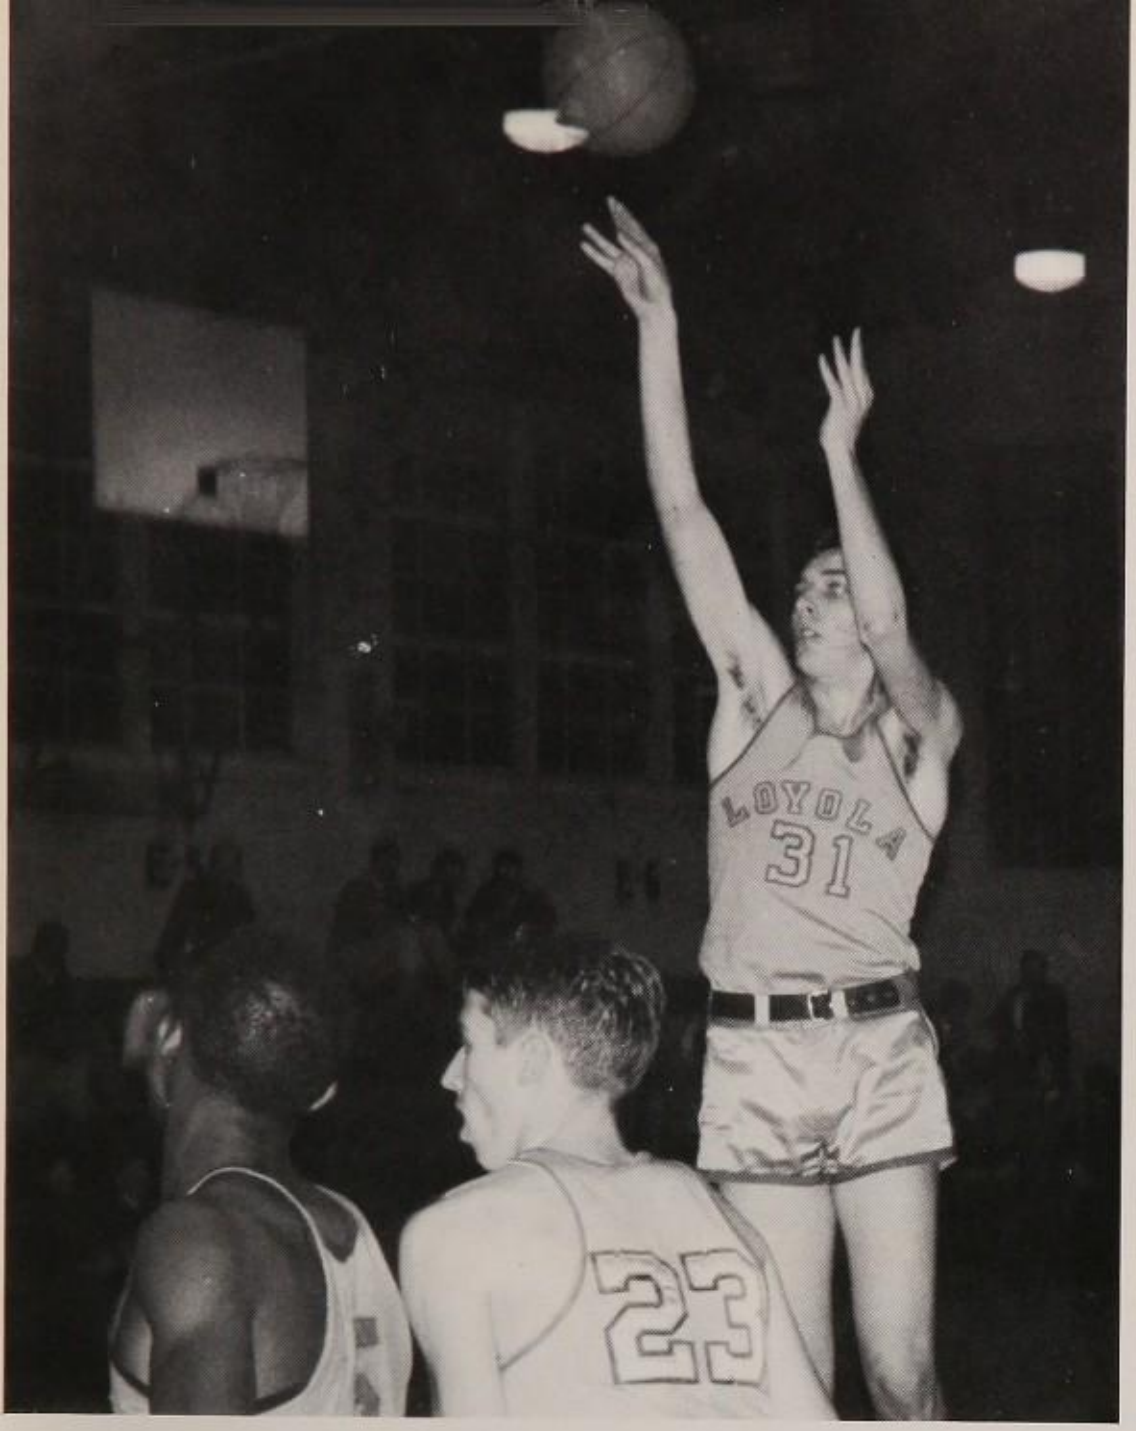
Jim Taneyhill soars over friend and foe alike to sink a jump shot against Douglass. Jim was also the Dons' leading rebounder.

Mr. Hargaden charts fourth-quarter strategy during a Don time out as the team clusters around to listen.

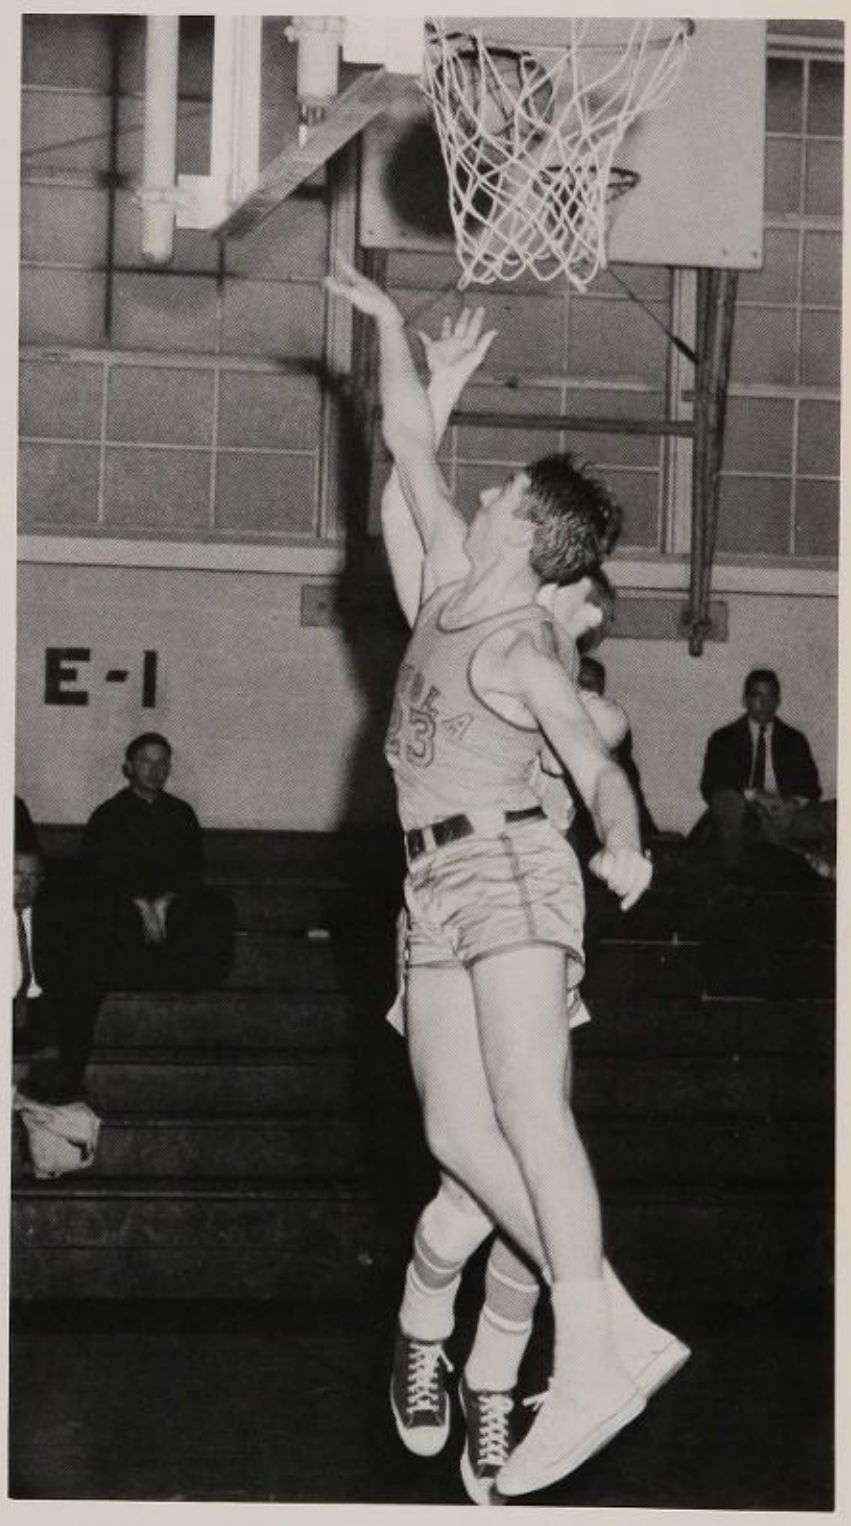


Defenders look on helplessly as Tom DeMoss slips inside to score in the bitterly-contested rematch against Towson Catholic.

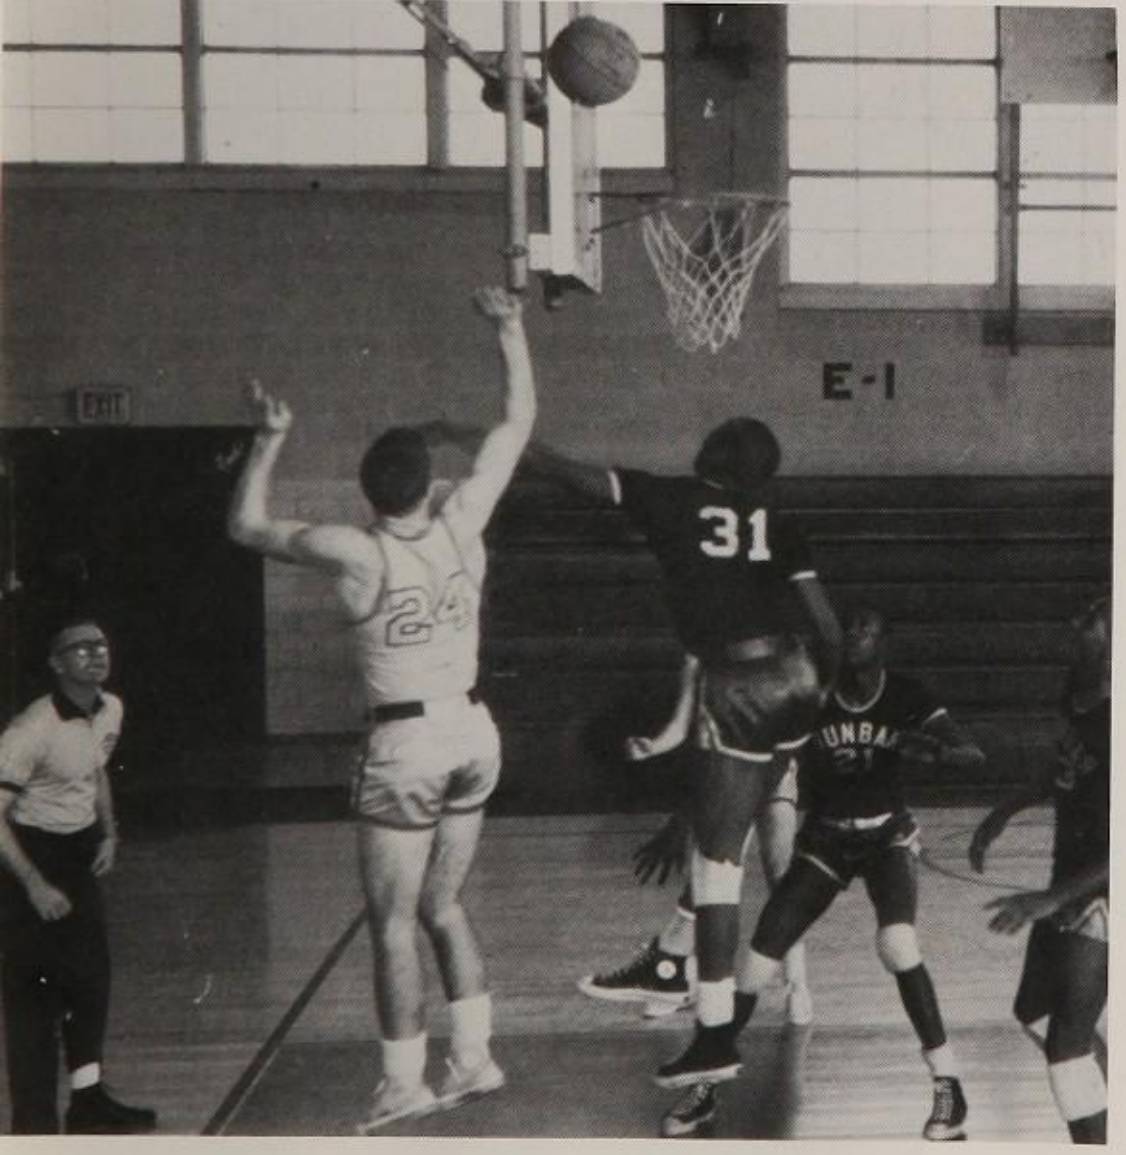
Jim Taneyhill goes high into the air to control a jump ball against Douglass.



Tom DeMoss shows the form that led to a 25.8 average and a scoring title. Mike Keeney breaks for the basket and a possible rebound.



Hustle marked Mike Keeney's play all season long. Here he deflects a Towson Catholic shot and prevents an almost certain basket.



Gary Matz hits with a side-court jump shot against M.S.A. champs from Dunbar. The Poets broke open a tight game with a big third quarter to win handily.
